

LMHI 2025 WORLD CONGRESS

BIOGRAPHY

RESIE MOONEN, MD

Resie Moonen is a Homeopathic Medical Doctor and General Practitioner with almost 40 years' experience. She is an international teacher in Homeopathy and Integrative Medicine. The last 14 years she is a guest speaker at Maastricht University, Faculty of Health and Medicine & Life Sciences, on the topic integrative medicine.

She was already invited as a speaker on several earlier LHMI conferences, in Berlin, Paris and Oostende, and she regularly speaks at the JAHC in the US, and in February 2025 at the Homeopathic Waves Conference in Los Angeles.

The subject of the Conference is an inspiring talk about the help of ancient trees, to overcome intergenerational trauma of war, fires, and chemo and radiation therapy. It is a joy and bliss to human mankind, that ancient trees can help us to live a happy and peaceful life after such serious events happened.
